Treasury of the United States,

Washington, August 18, 1887.

Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 17th instant, returning Transfer Order No. 14634, for $40,240.91, proceeds of bullion from U.S. Assay Office, Helena, Montana, and stating that it should have been issued for $40,241.41, that being the amount stated in your memorandum to the Director of the Mint.

In reply I beg to return the transfer order and to say that it covers the amount requested to be transferred by the Director, who informs me that he has made a request for the transfer of fifty cents additional and for which amount you will receive another transfer order in due course of business.

Very respectfully,

James W. Nyman
